

PwC Jersey Young Musician of the Year Competition

For musicians residing in Jersey under the age of 19 years on 1 September 2018 and who have reached a comparable standard to Grade VI of the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music/ Trinity College are eligible to enter this competition, with the exception of the previous year's competition winner.

The PwC Jersey Young Musician of the Year Competition is part of Jersey Music Service's provision of opportunities for young musicians in Jersey. It incorporates the well-established sectional competitions for String, Woodwind, Piano, Brass, Voice and Percussion.

Competition structure

The competition has two stages; the heats and the final. The six sectional competitions act as heats, each heat will have one winner who will be invited to go forward to the final, held in March, at the Jersey Opera House.

Prizes

The heats

- Each heat winner will be awarded a trophy and a replica, two complimentary tickets for the final as well as a cheque for £100 which will be presented at the final
- All competitors will be awarded certificates
- All competitors may also be offered further non-competitive performance opportunities during the year

The final

The overall winner will receive:

- The PwC Jersey Young Musician of the Year Trophy
- A cheque for £1,000
- An invitation to give a short performance at the final of the following year's competition

In addition, the Jersey Symphony Orchestra (JSO) Award will go to one of the finalists whose performance demonstrates potential to benefit from a structured programme of participation with the JSO over the following year. The Award consists of a monetary prize of £200 to be spent by the winner on approved expenditure relating to the development of their musical studies.

Dates

Application deadline is Friday 23rd November 2018 - online entry must be made by this date in addition to the entry fee and sheet music having been submitted to Jersey Music Service, La Pouquelaye. Electronic copies of sheet music will not be accepted.

Entrants will be notified of the exact time and venue for their competition once the application deadline has passed.
